PHOTOGRAPHY

Photography had an early start in Heber when William Willis and his wife opened a studio in a cabin near their home on 482 S. Main. Later they built a new studio on the site presently occupied by Chick's Cafe. Many treasured pictures in old family albums were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Willis. Mrs. Willis learned the art from her husband and then operated the shop while he studied law and became a prominent attorney. Leslie Condon took over the business from the Willis', but did not maintain it long. Another photo studio was operated for a short time by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pool in the Avon Theatre building. Now Don Barker does the photography work of the valley.

W. S. WILLES.

Wm. S. Willes is one of the rising attorneys of this county, and is enjoying a lucrative and growing practice.

He was born at Lehi, September 5, 1858, and came to Provo valley in 1880. He was bookkeeper for the firm of A. Hatch & Co., for about six years, when he resigned to go into the photography business.

He married Miss Mary L. Clyde November 30, 1882, who became his right-hand assistant, not only in his home, but in his art studio. While working in his studio, he took up the study of law, and after about two years of labor with the camera and brush, turned the business over to his wife and entered the legal profession.

We was appointed probate judge of Wasatch county in 1894, by President Cleveland and served until the office was abolished by the advent of statehood in 1896. He was admitted to the bar of the supreme court of Utah in 1894, and has held the office of county and city attorney and is now assistant county attorney of this county.
